FORD'S RAILROAD UP AND DOING!

"Big Lizzie" Gives Freight Service and Moves Cars

OLD METHODS ARE SCRAPPED

Old Timers Surprised by New and Better Methods

Henry Ford's railroad, the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, is satisfying the public and its employees, and making money. The Lima News sent John W. Raper and Bob Dorman to tell the story of "Lizzie's" big sister" with pen and camera. This is the second article.

By JOHN W. RAPER

TOURING ON HENRY FORD'S RAILROAD—There is no secret about the way Henry Ford accomplishes things on the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton Railroad. The answer is, common sense and work.

To begin with, Ford has scrapped all the ancient railroad traditions, customs and precedents he has encountered. The surest and easiest way to get in bad in his company is for a man to say, "We used to do it this way," or "When I was on the Spaulding railroad we did this." They don't want that kind of a man on the D. T. & I.

Ford made out his own passenger time-table when he took the reins.

"The train that starts first on a railroad ought to be No. 1," he said. "The Bainbridge accommodation starts earliest in the morning, so instead of calling it No. 2 as it has always been called, we'll call it No. 1."

CAN'T BE DONE? "Oh, no," said an old railroad man. "That can't be done."

"Why not?" asked Ford.

"Because," explained the railroad man, "the Bainbridge accommodation runs to Springfield. It's a north bound train and in this country north and east bound trains have even numbers and south and west bound have odd numbers."

"Do you suppose," asked Ford, "that giving this train an odd number would prevent it from arriving in Springfield?"

"The railroad man thought it would hardly be that bad."

"All right, then, we'll call it No. 1," said Ford.

The D. T. & I. employees have caught that spirit and are eager to upset tradition wherever they find it, especially where it is an obstacle.

GIVING SERVICE

The D. T. & I. gives service on its own lines simply by moving cars. That's all there is to the mystery.

"A freight car brings in no revenue when it is standing still," said Superintendent W. H. Kinney. "The car must move, but the interest on the investment keeps running. It has to be moving to be of real value to a company. We don't use yards and sidings as storage places for loaded cars. It's the business of every man working for this railroad to help in the movement of cars and every man does his job, no matter whether he is an engineer, conductor or stenographer."

One thing that undoubtedly is of great importance in quick handling of freight on the D. T. & I. is the "check-up" policy.

When an order is given on the D. T. & I. it is checked. The official who gives the order knows immediately whether or not the order is obeyed. The result is that orders are obeyed. Officials spend no small part of their time traveling up and down the line—and not in private cars, either—with eyes always open.

Giving service on other lines over which cars are routed, when they pass out of D. T. & I. control, seems not such a simple matter, but Ford appears to have solved it.

The D. T. & I. crosses all the big trunk lines that run west from the Atlantic. Some of them it crosses two or three times. In addition to the connections at Toledo and Detroit, it has 46 connections with other roads in its 374 miles of main line.

Ford simply plays one line against the other.

He says to one big trunk line: "Give me service and I will give you freight. No service, no freight. I'll give it to another line."

The D. T. & I. is such a big feeder that there isn't a single big trunk line that can afford to lose on the job.

The Lima News tomorrow will tell about working conditions and wages on the D. T. & I.

SUIT IS REFILED

Action Against W. O. Entered Again in Court

Suit of the Union Trust company against the Western Ohio Railway company for appointment of a receiver and judgment for $2,550,000, alleged principal and interest due on bonds, was re-filed in common pleas court Tuesday.

The second suit is but a legal way of taking care of the case, according to the belief of the Union Trust company, plaintiff, whose offices are in Cleveland.

The action is identical with the first suit. Interest on the bonds was not due until November 1 and it is said the second action is to protect the Union Trust company against possibility of premature action, should that constitute a legal point when the case comes up for trial.

TAXPAYERS DEMAND BURKHARDT'S PROBERS BE ENJOINED BY GARLING

ANNIHILATION OF RATS IN NEW YORK PLANNED

NEW YORK—An endless chain of death is being prepared for the rat population of New York, the city health department announced today.

A half dozen of the city's six million rats will be inoculated, it is explained, with a serum which will cause their death shortly after they have been released to return to their fellows. Experts say the carcasses will be eaten by other rats. These in turn will die and provide poison serum for succeeding links in the endless chain, it is claimed.

WOULD PAY BONUS WITH BEER TAX

Brennan Drafts Measure to Legalize the Beverage

REVEUE GOES TO SOLDIERS

Will Present Bill to Congress in Few Days

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—A bill to legalize and place a four per cent tax on beer and light wines to be used in defraying the cost of a soldier's bonus has been drafted by Representative Brennan, Republican, Michigan, and will be presented to congress, he announced today, as soon as the American legion convention at Kansas City, has acted on the bonus question.

Declaring that for the last two years, "the revenue which rightfully should have flowed into the coffers of Uncle Sam, has been collected by bootleggers and rum runners," Representative Brennan predicted under the recent regulations permitting medical use of beer, "oceans of it will be manufactured and sold for purposes other than strictly medicinal."

RETURN PREDICTED

"Many students of the prohibition question," he said, "predict that medicinal beer is only a forerunner to a return of beverage beer and light wine. If this be so why should not the tax be taken at once and the enormous revenue flowing from this source be applied to paying the soldier bonus. Estimating that from fifty to seventy million barrels of beer would be consumed annually, a tax of $5 to $10 a barrel would be sufficient, without including light wine revenues, to finance an adjusted compensation plan."

GOES INTO EXILE

Former Emperor Charles on Way Out of Hungary

BUDAPEST—(By Associated Press)—Former Emperor Charles today was on way out of Hungary to begin what appeared to be permanent exile. He and former Empress Zita left yesterday for Dunaodvar, a town on the Danube below this city, where they went on board the British gunboat Glowworm. Arrangements have been made to land the erstwhile monarchs at Galatz, Rumania, a city about 100 miles from the mouth of the Danube.

Preparations were being made here today for a special session of the Hungarian national assembly tomorrow at which time a resolution deposing the Hapsburg dynasty from the throne will be presented.

The assembly was convoked by the government in response to an ultimatum from the allied powers directing that all ties between the Hapsburg family and Hungary be formally severed.

WASHINGTON—President Harding celebrated his fifty-sixth birthday today quietly at the White House, no special program having been arranged for the occasion. Scores of congratulatory letters and telegrams were received during the day from friends throughout the country and many from abroad.

22,000 MINE MEN ARE NOW OUT

General Tieup of Coal by Strike Threatened

3 STATES ALREADY AFFECTED

Workers Quit as Protest Against Court Order

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. — (By United Press) — Twenty thousand coal miners of District 11 United Mine Workers of America, are not working today in protest against the injunction of Judge A. B. Anderson.

District officials expressed the belief that 30,000 men, employed by 230 mines, would be out in the district before Friday.

If the mine operators obey the injunction issued by Judge A. B. Anderson, preventing operation of the "check-off" system, union leaders instructed their men to regard it as a violation of the contract.

This in itself would be sufficient to cause the men to walk out wherever the operators refuse to continue the check-off system of collecting union dues. No general strike order would be needed. Already several hundred men have refused to work in the Indiana fields.

The union chiefs gathered here, however, inspected their financial resources and otherwise drew their lines in preparation for a general strike call, provided they deem it necessary.

JUDGE SILENT
Judge Anderson today read the instructions sent out by the union heads, on his injunction. He reserved comment.

M. L. Gould, president of the Indiana Coal Operators' association, said today that his association plans to obey the injunction rather than the miners' threat.

According to Secretary-Treasurer William E. Green, there is not enough money in the national treasury to finance a strike of any duration. The operators also have assurance the miners would not authorize a strike, but would cooperate with them in effecting an immediate appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals in Chicago.

CONFERENCE HELD
CHICAGO—(By United Press)—Twenty-two thousand coal miners were out on "outlaw strike" in the central coal fields today in protest against the order by Judge A. B. Anderson, preventing operation of the "check-off" system. Indications were the strike would continue to spread.

Frank Farrington, head of the Illinois branch of the United Mine Workers of America, was in Chicago today, conferring with mine operators. Farrington was here to find out if the operators were going to obey Anderson's order.

There was considerable doubt among the operators as to what course they should follow.

Judge Charles H. Miller, in the circuit court of Franklin, Mo., last week issued an injunction preventing the operators abolishing the check-off system. As Anderson's ruling is just the opposite, the operators fear they will be in contempt of one court or the other, no matter what course they pursue.

Most of the miners who walked out were in Indiana and Ohio. Many miners in the southern Indiana fields were out.

Mine operators were certain there would be a strike, and took all preparations to meet it.

The stipulation will be presented to the court when the case is called Monday.

The postponement is desired on account of election day and Armistice Day during the week of November 7.

Must Make Payments on Loan, Peking is Told

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—Attention of the Chinese government has been called thru Minister Schurman, at Peking, to the seriousness of the failure of that government to meet its obligations in connection with payment of principal and semi-annual interest on the five and a half million dollar loan extended by the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Company of Chicago.

Payment of the loan and the last half year's interest was due yesterday and Minister Schurman was directed by the state department to indicate to Chinese officials the feeling of the United States government that defaulting such obligations constituted a very serious failure of governmental stability.

PRESIDENT BALKS

Rejects Plan for Reorganization of Government

WASHINGTON—(By United Press)—President Harding has upset in part plans for reorganization of the government, drafted at his request by Walter L. Brown, chairman of the joint executive committee, it was learned today.

Harding has overturned Brown's plan for abolishing the department of labor and substituting a general department of public welfare which would include bureaus devoted to labor, education and public health.

The president, according to persons who have consulted him recently, refused to abolish the department of labor, on the ground that its activities are important enough to justify the attention of a separate arm of the executive machinery.

BONUS DEMANDED

Resolution is Passed by American Legion Convention

KANSAS CITY—(By Associated Press)—Amid cheers, the national convention of the American Legion today adopted the report of its legislative committee reaffirming the organization's stand on the question of immediate federal compensation for service men and asking that such action be taken "without further equivocation or delay."

The resolution on federal compensation said that "after careful consideration of all the arguments advanced in opposition to the measure, including the letter of the secretary of the treasury and the address of President Harding we still firmly believe in the justice, fairness and immediate necessity of the adjusted compensation measure."

Six Leading Business Men of Lima Join In Application for Restraining Order to Protect Funds of the City Treasury

Solicitor Declines to Say Whether He Will Bring Suit—Expenditure by Commission Held to be Misapplication

Injunction proceedings to prevent Mayor Burkhardt's police investigating commission from spending money were demanded of City Solicitor H. E. Garling Wednesday. The demand was signed by Frank Colucci, Gus Holstine, C. C. Williams, E. T. Mitchell, C. W. Herbst and J. E. Morris.

This action was exclusively predicted in The Lima News several days ago when it became known that various attorneys were agreed that the commission was appointed and was proceeding under a purely fiscal statute.

At the same time the demand was filed rumors were heard, which could not be verified, that overtures were being made by certain interests looking to the dropping of the probe of Chief Roush. The unconfirmed reports were that a trade-off was being sought, but that it was not likely to take place.

The demand on the solicitor bears an array of names of the most imposing nature. All signers are business men of the highest order, including bankers, merchants, real estate operators and others.

IF SOLICITOR REFUSES TO ACT, ANY LAWYER MAY BRING SUIT

The law provides that if the solicitor refuses to act, any lawyer may handle the case and if he wins in court, the city is liable for his fees.

The demand places the solicitor in a position of enjoining an action on which he passed before the appointment. He maintains that the appointment and proceedings are legal. Garling said following the presentation of the demand for an injunction that he would not say whether he would file the suit.

The taxpayers signing the demand charge that Burkhardt acted under Section 3792 of the General Code and that this section pertains only to the fiscal affairs of the chief of police.

They declare that any money spent by the commission will be a misapplication of funds of the city and an illegal expenditure. They say this expenditure will take place unless the injunction is secured.

Some days ago neither the mayor nor members of the commission would say whether money was being paid the big array of witnesses called to give testimony. One commissioner said that body had not called witnesses. The mayor refused to discuss the matter.

Burkhardt said Wednesday afternoon that he had not been informed of the taxpayers' action. He refused any comment except to say that he believed the city's interests would be protected.

L. E. Ludwig, chairman of the commission, said the action was a surprise to him and that he would not make a statement concerning it.

STENOGRAPHER STRIKES BUT LATER RESUMES HIS DUTIES

It is known that the stenographer who has been taking the testimony went "on strike" for his pay several days ago. It later was announced that assurance had been given that the money would be forthcoming. From where, was not made public, but the stenographer continued his duties.

When the commission was named, Ludwig announced that he would not accept compensation. T. R. Hamilton and F. C. Povenmire, the other members, refused to announce their stand on the matter of pay at that time.

After it became known that the injunction had been demanded, there was generous comment about the action. The consensus of opinion was that in view of the city's announced poverty in the matter of taking care of needy people, it is poor business to spend money at this time on probes because of personal dislikes.

BOLSHEVISM BURNING OUT IN EUROPE

(BY MILTON BRONNER)
LONDON—The fires of bolshevism are dying out in Europe, but flaming higher in middle Asia, where they menace British rule in India. A survey of the situation shows:

RUSSIA—Still ruled and ruined by the Bolsheviks, who, however, have had to make many concessions to capital lately, not the least of which is the assumption of the obligations of the czarist regime.

GERMANY—Once powerful Spartacist party reduced to impotence; two of its leaders, Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, assassinated, and another, a Bolshevik highwayman, Max Hoel, sentenced to 15 years in prison. With government strongly entrenched and red terror no longer feared.

BAVARIA—Communist republic headed by Kurt Eisner overthrown. Eisner assassinated, and strong government with monarchial tendencies in saddle.

HUNGARY—Conservative elements in complete control after overthrowing Bela Kun's red republic and driving Kun to take refuge in Russia. Although country recently rejected Ex-King Carl, its trend is monarchial.

ITALY—Extreme elements in Socialist party, after assuming great strength, have been put down by the Fascists, an organization of more than a million men, mostly former soldiers. These pursued retaliatory tactics against the Socialists after every red outrage, until a peace pact was signed.

RUMANIA—This country no longer fears bolshevism. Wise agrarian laws have permitted division of huge estates into small farms which have been given to the peasants.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA—A moderate Socialist republic which has never been seriously troubled by bolshevism.

BULGARIA—A nation of peasant farmers, whose premier boasts he represents the great internationale, meaning the small peasant farmer class, has no tolerance for bolshevism.

YUGOSLAVIA—Authorities have taken stern measures to repress bolshevism, following several political murders. More than 10,000 persons have been imprisoned or banished as a result of these measures.

FRANCE—Henri Barbusse, the communist novelist, estimates there are only 150,000 communists in all France. The government has taken drastic steps to repress them. The Socialist party has split up.

ENGLAND—What there is of the communist party has broken up so that it is more of a joke than ever. Bigger section has repudiated only London communist paper and has withdrawn financial support from it.

SPAIN—Reds are menace only in industrial cities. In Barcelona, for instance, they maintain a campaign of intimidation, bomb-throwing, and occasional assassination.

MIDDLE ASIA—Bolsheviks have made Caspian sea a red lake, have soviet republics in Georgia, Azerbaijan and Armenia, have Khiva, Bokhara, Turkestan and Afghanistan under their domination, and have countered British influence in Persia.

News in Brief Gathered From Various Ohio Cities

DAYTON — (By United Press) — Morvin Spitzer, 28, is in a hospital with a dangerous wound just below his heart, and Miss Edith Peters is at home suffering from a nervous breakdown as the result of an attack made upon them as they left the Cincinnati and Dayton interurban car at the power house on the Cincinnati pike late last night. With this, an unidentified assailant shot Spitzer, the bullet lodging in his left lung. When Spitzer fell to the roadside, the man ran from the darkness, grabbed Miss Peters and began choking her.

When she became unconscious, the assailant dragged her into an adjoining wood.

Returning to the roadside where Spitzer was lying in a dazed condition, the man examined his prostrate victim and leaving him for dead, returned to the woods where he again attacked Miss Peters, according to Spitzer.

Sheriff Cusick and deputies were notified and searched the neighborhood for several hours but were unable to find definite evidence which might lead to apprehension of the assailant. Miss Peters' condition is serious, but it is not believed to be critical. Spitzer has a chance to recover.

ABSENT VOTER BALLOTS CANNOT BE HAD AFTER FRIDAY, BOARD WARNS

Friday, October 1, is the last day before election on which voters who are to be out of the city may make application for absentee voters' ballots. A. J. Morris, clerk of the board of elections, announced Wednesday.

The law states that application may be made to the election board for ballots not more than 30 days and not less than three days prior to election day.

More than 10 voters have already made application to the board, announcing their intention of being away from home on election day. The number will be materially increased, it is expected, before the time limit expires.

Employees at the board of elections offices in the Holmes building are engaged in issuing election supplies to the clerks and judges of the 70 precincts of the city.

The task will be completed Wednesday, it is announced.

NON-RESIDENT INSANE HEAVY COST TO OHIO

COLUMBUS — Ohio needs safeguards to prevent it becoming the "dumping ground" for non-resident insane persons, the former state board of administration, warned today.

Governor Davis has been warned of the danger in connection with the former board's report of a survey made in state institutions.

Non-resident inmates in Ohio institutions, now cost the state $45,000 a year, the report said. This is for maintenance on the basis of an average cost of $25 a year for each inmate.

CRAIG MAY TAKE PART IN PARLEY

Irish Conferees Expected to Call Ulster Leader

LONDON — (By Associated Press) — Negotiations relative to peace in Ireland have progressed to a point which makes necessary the presence in London of Sir James Craig, the premier of Ulster, it was declared here this morning.

Political correspondents of London newspapers today centered their attention upon the Ulster situation, and speculated whether Sir James would soon join in the conversations going forward here.

There were pessimistic rumors current here last night, concerning the Irish negotiations, but there were no developments, as far as known to justify the opinion that the situation was either better or worse than it had been during the past few days.

The absence of any definite prospect of immediate settlement would obviously lessen the chance of Prime Minister Lloyd George calling on the Aquitania, which leaves on Saturday for the United States. Some papers were positive in their statements that Mr. Lloyd George had abandoned the idea of starting on Saturday, although he was still determined to go as soon as possible.

$465,000,000 IS CUT FROM PUBLIC DEBT

WASHINGTON — A reduction of about $465,000,000 in the public debt during October was announced today by the treasury.

The total public debt on September 30, stood at $29,324,108,125.06, while on October 31 the total was $23,459,148,996.59, making a decrease for the period of $4,464,959,628.47.

The heavy decrease in the national debt during the past month, officials said, was accounted for by heavy redemption of government securities. Nearly $400,000,000 worth of treasury certificates were retired while the usual treasury financing was omitted on October 15 and no new certificates issued until November 1.

Mrs. Emily Hadley, director of the campaign, expressed her disappointment Wednesday at the manner in which downtown stores are displaying the Blue Triangle posters. They are not being placed in store windows, but are displayed in store interiors. That is not the purpose they were meant to serve. Let them be put prominently in display windows, that passersby may see them and know there is a Y. W. C. A. finance drive being put on in Lima.

The living models in Blum's store are attracting much attention during the late afternoon hours, it was declared.

10,800 MILK MEN NOW ON STRIKE

Walkout Brings Famine to Cleveland and New York

COMPROMISE PLANS FAIL

Tieup Results From Disputes Over Wages

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — Hundreds of thousands of people of Cleveland were without milk this morning as a result of the failure of between 750 and 800 drivers of the Telling-Belle Vernon and subsidiary companies to report for work.

The men went on strike at midnight following a vote by members of the Milk and Ice Cream Wagon Drivers, Chauffeurs and Helpers' Union after a break in negotiations for a new wage scale which had been going on since October 1, when the companies announced a reduction of $5.50 in the weekly wages, which averaged $38.

Between 75 and 80 percent of the milk deliveries are affected, according to estimates. Union officials announced, however, that hospitals and families having babies will be supplied.

Several offers of compromise were rejected by the company, according to the union officials. One called for acceptance of a reduction of $2 and another asked the company to endeavor to reach a medium between the $5 and $3.50 reduction.

NEW YORK SITUATION — (By Associated Press) — Citizens of the Metropolitan area rose again this morning to breakfast without milk and cream, on the second day of the 10,000 wagon drivers' strike, with slight prospect of a strike settlement in sight. Except for deliveries by small distributing companies, the milk delivery system continued in a state of paralysis.

Representatives of the employers' organization, the milk conference board and milk wagon drivers' union were called to the office of Mayor Hylan today to discuss possible terms of settlement. Both sides expressed little hope of reaching settlement.

The employers in reply to a request by Mayor Hylan to arbitrate the demands of the drivers for a $3 weekly increase and two weeks' vacation with pay, in case today's conference came to nothing, refused, asserting any arbitration must include the questions of an open shop policy and a reduction of wages provided by the contract which expired on November 1. They reiterated their intention of establishing the open shop.

The employees at a mass meeting tonight were to vote on the question of arbitration.

Two of the largest corporations announced plans for establishing neighborhood distributing stations today.

Scott Block in Toledo Rocked by Gas Explosion

TOLEDO — (By Associated Press) — Louis Williams, 40, and his wife, Laura Williams, 35, of Indianapolis, were fatally injured and several other persons received minor burns and bruises when a gas explosion rocked the Scott block at Monroe and Michigan-sts here today.

The blast occurred when Williams attempted to light a kerosene heater in their apartment on the third floor of the building. Williams was horribly mutilated about the body by the blast and will die. Mrs. Williams also is in a dying condition from burns received when the blast set fire to the bed on which she was sleeping.

Living in adjoining apartments were thrown from their beds by the force of the explosion.

The Williams came to Toledo from Indianapolis a week ago.

The fire was quickly extinguished and property damage is estimated at only a few hundred dollars.

FIRST MOTIONS FILED IN CONTEST OF SUIT FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

First efforts of J. Franklin Cover to contest the damage suit filed against him by Miss Ethelreda Hills, Boston, Mass., was made Wednesday, when attorneys for Cover filed a motion in court, asked that Miss Hills be required to put up security for costs.

Another motion was also filed, asking that certain allegations, made in the petition filed by her against Cover, be stricken from the petition.

Judge F. C. Becker has not acted upon either motion.

Miss Hills sued Cover for $25,000 for alleged breach of promise to marry her.

Democrats Pledge Support to New Chairman

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — Democratic members of the house at a conference today unanimously adopted a resolution expressing "appreciation and thanks for the able leadership and faithful and unselfish service" rendered by George White as chairman of the Democratic national committee, and congratulating the committee on the selection of Cordell Hull as Mr. White's successor.

"Mr. Hull's patriotism, statesmanship, knowledge of political history and policy and his elements of leadership," the resolution states, "particularly fit him for this position at this time of national crisis."

"We shall also proceed at once with establishment of a systematic and thorough organization in the various states and counties. In this same connection, we shall strive to maintain an efficient publicity bureau to get unbiased and accurate facts relating to the shortcomings of the Republican administration before the average citizens."

The new chairman's policies are briefly outlined in the following statement:

"The first step in administering the affairs of the committee will be to pay off the present indebtedness and create a good atmosphere in which to work. We shall try to pay all debts at an early date."

"We pledge to him as our fellow Democrats throughout the nation, our united support."

THIEF GETS $40

Money Saved for Last Payment on Home is Stolen

Search was made Wednesday by the police for a suspect alleged to have stolen $40 in currency from Mrs. Margaret O'Shea, 709 S. Metcalf-st, Tuesday. The money was to have been used to free her home of debt.

Mrs. O'Shea, the wife of Patrick O'Shea, line superintendent in the city for the Ohio Electric, told Judge Emmett J. O'Shea, on she left the money on a table in the dining room. She stepped out of the house for a few minutes and when she returned, it was gone.

The money, consisting of eight $5 bills was in a buckskin wallet. It was Mrs. O'Shea's intention, she told Judge Jackson, to make a final payment on her home.

This is the second time the O'Shea house has been robbed mysteriously, in the past six months. A sum amounting to $21 was stolen last March, Mrs. O'Shea said.

RESULT OF PARTY CONFLICT

New Committee Chairman Outlines His Policy

ST. LOUIS — (By Associated Press) — Former United States Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, who attended the Democratic national committee meeting yesterday, said the fight between the McAdoo and Cox factions for the chairmanship was as profitable as a mutiny in an army preparing for war over the selection of a drill sergeant for dress parade.

He said the conflict between the McAdoo and Cox forces would make former Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall the nominee for president in 1924.

Lewis advocated the abolition of the Democratic national committee and all other party national committees, declaring they were not needed in national elections.

CHAIRMAN HULL TALKS — (By Associated Press) — Development of the Democratic national committee into the "most militant and efficient organization" within its capacity and dissemination of facts concerning the "shortcomings" of the present national administration among the "average citizens," is in brief, to be the policy of Cordell Hull, the new Democratic chairman, as outlined today to the Associated Press. Mr. Hull expects to leave late today for Washington, arriving there tomorrow evening.

The new chairman's policies are briefly outlined in the following statement:

"The first step in administering the affairs of the committee will be to pay off the present indebtedness and create a good atmosphere in which to work. We shall try to pay all debts at an early date."

"We pledge to him as our fellow Democrats throughout the nation, our united support."

NEW CLUE TRACED IN $1,500,000 ROBBERY

NEW YORK — Police and postoffice inspectors engaged in running down the automobile bandits who robbed a postoffice truck of nearly $1,500,000 a week ago, were working on a new clue today following the arrest last night of a man who said he was George DeMange, a broker.

DeMange, who is charged with implication in the robbery, gave himself up when he heard he was being sought. His arrest, it was asserted may lead to the apprehension of the bandits themselves.

Frank Haverack, driver of the truck, failed to identify DeMange as one of the holdup men when the man was placed in a police lineup. DeMange was taken to the police station where he was held.

The police admitted they had no direct evidence against him.

CONTESTED DIVORCE SUIT IS UNDER WAY

The contested divorce suit of Ruth M. Johnson against Walter L. Johnson was heard Wednesday in common pleas court.

Mrs. Johnson, in her petition, charged that her husband sold their home and squandered his earnings, sending her and their two young children, to the home of her parents near Lima.

She charged he was continually bragging about a school teacher with whom he worked. Johnson was instructor of music and special subjects in the schools of Shawnee in 1920. His wife said he gambled.

Johnson, in his answer to her suit, declared she refused to take care of her household duties and remained away from their home weeks at a time.

ORDER INCREASE IN PENSIONS

Firemen's Board Puts Question Up to Solicitor

Firemen who are injured, disabled or retired from the Lima department, may be allowed increases in pensions if changes made by the pension board Tuesday are approved by City Solicitor H. E. Goring.

At the meeting of the board held in the office of Safety Director David W. Dorris, Tuesday night, it was voted to increase the allowance for partial disability from $40 to $55 a month. Total disability will pay $60, as before.

Firemen who have been in service 25 years, if the increase can be granted legally, will retire on a pension of $50 a month.

LEGION TO ELECT OFFICERS TODAY

Convention at Kansas City Will Close Tonight

KANSAS CITY — (By Associated Press) With a large amount of business still to be transacted, the national convention of the American Legion began its third and what officials expected would be the final session here today.

SPOUSES CHEAP IN GERMANY NOW

Berlin Matrimonial Bureaus Are Doing Rushing Business

10 MARKS BRING WEDDING

Men Are in Greater Demand Than Women

BERLIN — (By Associated Press)

The numerous matrimonial bureaus of Berlin, where a spouse may be had for the payment of 10 marks registration fee, are doing a rushing business. The advertising columns of the newspapers are being utilized, "prospects" are being bombarded with letters and circulars extolling the advantages and virtues of the several bureaus are being scattered broadcast.

The marriage literature makes its principal appeal to the "home-loving instinct" of men, who are in much greater demand in the marriage market than women.

NOT ALWAYS DISCREET

The press agents, however, are not always discriminating or discreet in the selection of "eligible mates." One bureau sent a letter to a married man with a large family urging him to marry happily; don't select your acquaintances at random from the streets; send us your photograph and 10 marks and we'll find you a good wife." The man became very indignant and wrote a scornful letter about it to his favorite newspaper.

Most of the marriages arranged thru the matrimonial bureaus are of women more or less advanced in years, and of doubtful physical attraction, but with substantial bank accounts, and young men out of work or weary of working, said the agent of a bureau. The financial arrangements are agreed upon before marriage.

DECEIVED BY WOMAN

One young man who accepted a much older woman as wife after she assured him she had money to support them, brought suit for divorce alleging he had been deceived and that the woman really had very little money. The woman admitted she had misrepresented her income but declared she felt justified because of the lonely life she had been living, with no opportunity to become acquainted with marriageable men.

While the young, attractive girls, who make application for husbands are comparatively few, according to the agents, scores of young men apply for wives, virtually always with the stipulation that they must be wealthy or well-to-do. Formerly the chief applicants were servant girls. Shop girls seldom patronize the marriage bureaus.

Scores of marriages are made thru the medium of the matrimonial bureaus every month, and their popularity has steadily increased since the war, which left the German women in large and conscious majority.

ALCOHOL CARGO TAKEN

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y. — (By United Press) — Two masked highway men held up a truck with $18,000 worth of alcohol, kidnapped the drivers, drove them to a bootlegging cache where the alcohol was unloaded and then tossed them—bound and gagged—into the roadway, police learned here today.

BENJAMIN H. KAUFFMAN, Reading, Pa.

"There's no doubt in my mind that Tanlac saved my wife's life," was the positive statement of Benjamin H. Kauffman, 505 Bingham St., Reading, Pa., popular clothing salesman for the well-known firm of Croll & Keck.

"I was almost desperate from worrying over her condition, as she had suffered so long without getting relief and I can hardly believe my own eyes now when I see the change in her. Why, she doesn't show her age by twenty years and declares she never remembers feeling better in her life. Her health was falling steadily for a year as a result of catarrh of the stomach. I have never seen anybody suffer as much from indigestion and nervousness as she did."

"After a five weeks' course of Tanlac she was like another person, and I'm firmly convinced that years have been added to her life. It makes me shudder now when I think what the result might have been if she hadn't taken Tanlac in time."

Tanlac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store, and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

ALLENRHU SURELY CONQUERS RHEUMATISM

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Seven Hours.

Hunter's 3 Drug Store, Thompson's 3 Drug Store, Butler's Drug Store, and every drug store in this county is authorized to sell Allenrhū. It is a sure cure for all cases of rheumatism, whether it be acute or chronic. It will dissolve the uric acid deposits, and drive the rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

Allenrhū has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Allenrhū relieves at once, immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives the rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhū who for many years suffered the tortures of acute rheumatism, declares all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhū decisively conquers their worst case of rheumatism.

Allenrhū is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store, Thompson's 3 Drug Store, Butler's Drug Store, and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Just Good Things to Eat

To Lima Advertisers—

Service is the paramount aim of The Lima News; service to our subscribers, service to our advertisers.

To give better service to our subscribers it is necessary, with the coming of shorter days and bad weather, that the paper be delivered as early as possible each evening.

This in itself will result in better service and greater returns for the advertisers. This is particularly true of our Friday issue. Late delivery on this night decreases the salespower of YOUR advertising. Late delivery recently has been caused by late copy on the part of some advertisers.

We feel confident that each advertiser will realize we are striving for better service to them and to the subscriber, in announcing the following rule, effective at once:

Advertising Copy for Friday Evening's News Will Not Be Accepted Later Than Thursday Night, 6 O'clock

(Grocery Advertising Will be Accepted Up to 10 a. m. Friday)

By enforcing this rule we will be able to carry your message into many thousands of homes on Friday that otherwise would not see your advertisement until Saturday—too late to be effective for Saturday business.

Each advertiser is paying to reach our entire circulation and The News intends that each shall receive full value. Therefore, the above rule is positive. Orders given Thursday to take copy from Friday morning's paper for publication Friday night will not constitute early copy and will not be accepted.

An extra force of compositors will be employed on Wednesday and Thursday nights. Early proofs will be furnished Thursday if copy is given us on Wednesday. This extra force will also be on duty Friday night to set up Sunday advertising.

Our exception on grocery copy only is because of the rapid change in quotations on grocers' lines, making it necessary for them to have Friday's prices to them before quoting Saturday's sale prices.

"Y. W." BEFRIENDS DESERTED GIRL

Lured From Home in Eastern
Ohio by Paul Ports

STRANDED, PENNILESS HERE

Employment Found and She Will Try to Forget

Lured from a home of refinement in eastern Ohio by a man believed to be a member of an international white slave traffic ring; abandoned, helpless and penniless in Lima during the height of Tuesday afternoon's downpour; forced to confess her story after newspaper reporters, social workers had conducted a rigid investigation, the sad plight of pretty 19-year-old Mary White, Patiently she waited the coming of her "friend" who gave the name of Paul Ports, Cleveland, in the Y. M. C. A. lobby Tuesday afternoon. Monday night she was forced to seek lodging at the Y. W. C. without learning her escort was without funds. Broke, both of them, Ports sought a fantastic and mythical story of having been left stranded by a musical theatrical company in Mansfield. The statement from the man that Mary was his wife; her story at the Y. W. C. A. that he was merely a "friend" started quick, prying investigation. Facts were gathered and pieced together and presented to secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

GIRL IS DESERTED
Patiently "Mary" waited but "Paul" didn't come and early Tuesday afternoon it was discovered that Ports had abandoned his "wife" taking with him her suitcase and clothing. He, a silk-shirted, collarless man of some 35 years, ill kept but fairly well dressed, had "gone west" when he got a "hunch" things were not exactly as they seemed.

Mary, loath to believe she was forsaken, was taken to the Lima House where Ports is alleged to have checked her suitcase. She was shown it was missing. Then came her story.

"I was introduced to Paul by a girl friend of mine last week. I quickly learned to love him. I consented to go with him after he promised to always protect me. I am astounded. I cannot believe he has gone," the girl wept.

Mary White, her innocent blue eyes wet with tears, detailed her sordid experience with Ports, of their stop at Marion, their arrival in Lima, his glowing promises.

The last seen of Ports was in the Y. M. C. A. lobby Tuesday noon when he left the girl, ostensibly to seek work.

"I'll see you here after awhile, kid," was his parting.

PROTECTED BY "Y. W."
The girl was placed under the protection of the Y. W. C. A. Employment was found for her. She is going to remain in Lima until she forgets. She started work Wednesday.

"Things were none too pleasant at home. I have a step-mother there and I was glad to get away," she said.

"I have never been away from home alone before. This is a new and horrid experience for me. Why, I never knew what men were before and this will be a lesson I'll never forget," Mary declared.

Efforts to locate Ports in his flight from the city were unavailing. He is of the typical east side New York type and are not easily to be mistaken for other than the Bowery rounder.

Meanwhile "Mary," whose name is not Mary at all, and who is pretty, neat and well dressed, is working in her new-found position. "Mary" is going to try to forget and the Y. W. C. A. and Lima are going to be "Mary's" friends until she has forgotten and is ready to return to her home in eastern Ohio.

FURNITURE TRADE IS ACTIVE

Manufacturing Plants at Indianapolis Kept Busy

MUCH BUILDING IN PROGRESS

Many of the City's Industries, However, Are Dull

(BY RICHARD SPILLANE)
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Indianapolis presents a rather complex and puzzling picture to the person who tries to view it as a whole. Essentially it is an industrial city having more than 1,100 manufacturing plants ranging from packing houses and automobile concerns, to foundry and tool and machine works and furniture factories, flour and grist mills, etc. The variety of articles manufactured is large, totaling nearly 800.

Most of these industries are very dull, the auto plants, foundries and machine shops particularly. Some are quite active, the furniture and flour mills leading in this respect. Why furniture should be in demand today is not clear, yet furniture factories are busy.

Despite the depression in its principal industries, Indianapolis is in pretty fair shape. It has had a lot of construction work this year, more proportionately than any other city east of the Mississippi. It has not had a failure of size. It had an industrial fair recently about which many prominent men had grave doubts at the start, but which turned out to be a decided success and a business getter.

Not until a person looks beneath the surface can he understand the sustaining influences in Indianapolis. Possibly the chief of these is the remarkable volume of interurban trade and traffic. Only one city in America has a greater network of trolley, motor truck lines and that is Los Angeles. There are trolley lines everywhere and auto truck services, too. That explains the great number of wholesale and jobbing houses and the fact that this city has 1,000 salesmen on the road.

The great amount of construction work is ascribed to the fact that Indianapolis is an open shop town, altho here are the headquarters of various great union labor organizations.

The packing and slaughtering people there has been an increase in their domestic business but the export trade has been bad. The farmer has been hurt more by the decline in livestock than the packer and he has good reason for complaint. He is getting pre-war prices for his products and is compelled to pay war taxes in addition to high prices for what he requires. From the information the packers receive the agriculturists are souring on labor, declaring it hasn't come down while the man of the soil has been brought down to his marrow bone.

Bankers say the automobile business here has been hard hit. Its production now is only 20 per cent of normal. The revival in the spring did not hold. "But," said one banker, "you can't keep the automobile down. It is subject to wide swings and sudden changes."

Lima Ohio

Everyone in the industry is hopeful of recovery in the spring.

Wholesale dry goods men report as big a business in yards of goods as last year but considerably less in dollars. They had no profit in the first six months of this year but now are doing quite well and expect to have a profit on the total of the 12 months. But their overhead bothers them. Retailers, they say, are very aggressive and are succeeding in turning over merchandise faster than ever before. There is a hint, however, that retailers are finding it a little harder to sell goods. The public, being a bit resentful of the recent advance in cottons. There is a general acceptance of the belief that purchasers are far more discriminating than ever before.

Reports of pronounced scarcity of various kinds of desirable textile goods are many. Distributors say this is because retailers delay in placing orders being unwilling to order until stocks are nearly exhausted.

On the other hand manufacturers will not make goods except on order. Between the two there is developing an artificial shortage that may create a false market. Prices and trouble to the trade.

As in other cities, the authorities here say the government figures of unemployment are much too high. (Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Service)

"They are really suffering from cumulative constipation"

COUNTLESS numbers of people have a daily elimination of waste matter from the system but this elimination is not thorough and sufficient. They depend on a regular weekly purge to rid their intestines of poisons and they never feel the full vigor and zest that come from perfect health.

This whole problem is so important that a well-known medical journal has published a collection of essays on constipation. All the doctors who wrote these essays emphasize the importance of diet. As one physician puts it, "The diet has the most marked influence upon the normal activity of the bowels."

Scientists have now discovered the simple food that helps restore normal conditions, and clears the body of accumulating waste matter—just the familiar little cake of Fleischmann's Yeast!

First came the startling discovery that Fleischmann's Yeast richly supplies the essential water-soluble vitamin. Then it was found that it builds up the body tissues and keeps the body resistant to disease. In addition, because of its freshness (you get it fresh daily) it helps the intestines in their elimination of poisonous waste matter.

Eat 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals every day. Have it on the table at home and on your desk at the office. Eat it plain, spread on bread or crackers, or dissolved in water, milk or fruit juices. You will like its fresh, distinctive flavor and the clean, wholesome taste it leaves in your mouth.

Fleischmann's Yeast is assimilated just like any other familiar food. Only one precaution: if troubled with gas, dissolve the yeast first in half a cup of very hot water. This does not affect the efficacy of the yeast. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast and get it fresh every day.

Send 4 cents in stamps for the booklet, "The New Importance of Yeast in Diet." So many inquiries are coming in daily for this booklet that it is necessary to make this nominal charge to cover cost of handling and mailing. Address THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, 701 Washington Street, New York City.

The need for scientifically tested yeast

Fresh yeast has been proved by recent scientific tests to be a valuable food for correcting run-down condition, constipation, indigestion and certain skin disorders. These original tests were all made with Fleischmann's Yeast. Beware of untested yeast-vitamins preparations that contain drugs or other mixtures. Fleischmann's Yeast (fresh) is a pure food, rich in vitamins, in which it measures up to the high standards set by laboratories and hospitals. The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast for health is sold.

MARRY? HA! NOT MARY GARDEN!

If Horoscope is True, Husband Must Live Under Separate Roof!

(By ALICE BOHE)

NEW YORK — While the future of grand opera in America may rest more or less in the capable hands of Mary Garden, she insists that it must stand on its own merits.

And when Director Mary makes this statement she refers not only to vocal chords but to legs.

For Mary came right out and said to me in a 10-minute talk:

"American women have the most beautiful legs in the world! I hope that skirts continue short and get shorter, and the women all bob their hair. Mine is bobbed!"

"And material for opera—the best comes from America. I tried out many voices abroad—but here is where you will get the best always—now."

"So what do I attribute that fact? Well, the life here, perhaps the climate, but I would say the splendid free life of the women, their glorious free will!"

yourself a voice?" I asked. "Are you interested in psychoanalysis?"

"I believe you can will to do anything you want—that you can control your own destiny."

"I haven't taken up psychoanalysis because—well, because I am afraid of it. You can believe in the power of will to attain the results you want without psychoanalysis."

"Yes, indeed, yes, I have, thru may will, arrived at what I am today."

Miss Garden, radiant, full of plans and ideas, crossed chapeau ankles encased in white spats above patent leather pumps.

Over her straight-lined blue serge, embroidered in Pompeian red, she wore a gorgeous grey squirrel wrap. Over this, a stunning silver fox encircled her throat. On her head was a small, black, felt turban with a crown of red and black wings.

On her wrists were many bracelets, in her ears were huge pendant pearls, and in her hand was a cane with a life-like greyhound's head for a handle.

MARRIAGE. TRA-LA! "Marriage. Nonsense! I have no time to think of such frivolous things. And how flippantly marriage is regarded! By the way, who has been divorced since I sailed?"

Told that the McCormicks, supporters of the Chicago Grand Opera company, were living under separate roofs, she said:

"That doesn't mean anything. Why, if I had a husband, I'd live under a separate roof and only let him come around when I wanted him.

"My horoscope says I am to be married in 1924. I'm always looking over my men acquaintances and wondering if he is to be the one."

HEALTHFUL VIGOR IN STRONG BLOOD

Rich, Red Blood Built Up by Pepto-Mangan—Liquid or Tablet

Blood is strong and full of life-giving vigor when there are plenty of red cells in it. Anemic people have little strength because there are not enough red cells in the blood. It is thin and watery. Weak blood makes faces pale, pulls down the strength and leaves the body tired, weak and sickly.

A course in Gude's Pepto-Mangan restores weak blood to its normal strength. Taken regularly for a while it adds red cells to the blood. Then with good blood, the strength and vigor of health return. There is pleasure in living, with good blood running thru the veins. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is put up in liquid and in tablet form. They are the same medicinally. Physicians have prescribed name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" for years. The package.—Adv.

"GROWING PAINS" MOST SERIOUS MOVIE AILMENT

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
WHAT'S the matter with the movies? For your next door neighbor keeps asking the question. Newspapers and periodicals are filled with columns with discussions of the question.

As far as we can see there isn't nearly as much the matter with the movies as there is with the stage. That is as far as matters needing censorship are concerned.

The only thing "the matter" with the screen is that it has the growing pains of a new industry. President of the Screen, Paul Brunet, president of the Pathe, put it a little differently the other day.

"Public taste is on a higher plane than it was a few years ago," he said. "Audiences are growing more and more discriminating, but the better class of producers has succeeded in keeping pace with the popular demand for a more careful choice of subjects and better technique in picture-making.

"The thing that is missing in the movies is highbrow stuff—works of art which enlighten as well as entertain and are worthy to survive as fine paintings, sculpture, novels and dramas survive and renew their power of entertainment for each succeeding generation.

"I believe the motion picture producer is doing more in the way of high value production than the public demands."

Yet the public did not support such fine pictures as "The Jack Kallie Man," "Sentimental Tommy," "What Every Woman Knows" and "Without Benefit of Clergy." Each of them was a classic of the screen.

column with a review of his own book.

This writer may some day write a scenario and find in it material to fill this column. In that event it is to be hoped Heywood Brown will mention the matter in his column.

ABOUT E. M. HULL
E. M. Hull, author of "The Sheik," the much-discussed novel which has found its way into the movies, is Edith M. Hull, wife of a British army officer. She says she wrote the story "purely for relaxation and personal distraction of mind." That may account for many things.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever again afflicted with a "black brown face," bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

By MARRAN HALL
NEW YORK — Of "corsets" is all settled. Meaning that the question under discussion at the beginning of the season has been decided once and for all.

The well dressed woman refuses to do without corsets and the American woman has influenced their design to such an extent that no longer do they offer any excuse for old-time prejudices.

Not only is the new corset more popular than ever but its low-busted, slender-lined lines have become an esthetic delight of varied necessity.

It is the wise woman today who has corsets for all occasions. There is the all-rubber, flexible corset for sports. There is the classic hip for dancing. Gorgeous dress and elegance vie with each other in corsets for evening wear. Handmade brocades combined with lace and ribbons run from orchid, pink and blue—yes, to black. The black corset, once regarded as suspiciously artificial, is now the smart thing, with a thin black evening gown. White satin shares attention, with brocade, for bridal corsets.

Brassiers are, of course, necessary with these low-busted corsets for women who are not built on ultra-slender lines.

LETTERS TO LOVERS

By WINONA WILLIAMS

Love is supposed to cure or compensate for all the evils of existence. Starvation with one's beloved provides greater happiness than feasting with a millionaire one scorns; so runs the theory. Therefore, the following confession of a girl is amazing:

"I'm happier when I'm NOT in love. I've lived thru one broken engagement. I've lost my faith in men. Now I am meeting daily a man who has begun to make love to me. I am tempted to believe him. I hunt for all kinds of reasons to think he would be perfectly loyal to one woman. I fight the longing one day, and yield to it the next. How can I save myself?"

A cynic and unworthy of consideration—thus the girl would have been condemned not long ago. But today it is explained by writers about the emotions that the young lady doubtless "has a complex;" that owing to some impressions stored in her unconscious mind, she actually pretends to let love hurt her feelings; thus she finds her comfort and joy in love!

The girl's frank confession may be paralleled in the experiences of many charming and capable business girls. For example, this:

"My father was divorced by my mother. I was brought up to hate men. But I fell in love at 20 and would have married had not my mother interfered. I took her advice because my older brother was no better than my father.

"Now I am the unhappiest girl alive. I am in the business world, the world of men. Being pretty, I have my share of romance, but I hate men. I distrust what they say. I hate compliments and flattery and insincerity. I have a smile for them and a smart answer, but a heavy heart. I feel shut out from what makes life worth while.

"I don't know whether I'm to blame, or my mother.

Wouldn't it seem logical to blame the father and brother who sowed the seeds of misery for both our mother and yourself?

But why conclude that all men conform to father's pattern? Why not adopt idealism as an offset to cynicism? Thus you might arrive at the average fact about men, that they are not all bad.

Love: The love of men and women is made up of equal quantities of wretchedness and happiness; if the latter is worth anything at all, why shrink from paying the price?

We call out of human beings the qualities we look for in them. That important bit of idealism often escapes lovers. A man will try to be as good as he is supposed to be—and often, he will succeed.

Moreover, happiness is its own best excuse for being and the world holds not so much that any one should refuse to perceive and to take his scanty portion of it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, Jr., of W. North-st., entertained informally at 6 o'clock dinner at their home Tuesday evening honoring George Ruff and Wilbur Hasting, of Cleveland. Mr. Ruff and Mr. Hasting served with Mr. Fletcher during the World War in the 37th division.

DAINTIES FOR THE HOLIDAYS

THE old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner dessert was pie, mince and pumpkin both, and an Indian pudding. Now we sometimes add ice cream to the pie and do without the pudding. But an Indian pudding is delicious and more unusual than an ice. These desserts are as traditional as turkey itself. The whole dinner could be finished off with nuts, raisins and apples and black coffee.

Serve sweet cider with the dinner proper.

MINCE MEAT FOR MINCE PIE
Two pounds beef heart, 3-4 cup suet, 4 cups chopped apples, 1 pound raisins, 1-2 cup shredded citron, 1 tablespoon cinnamon, 1 tablespoon allspice, 1 cup boiled cider, 2 teaspoons salt, 3 cups brown sugar, 1-2 cup vinegar, 1-2 cup water.

Boil meat until tender. Skim during boiling. Remove fat and gristle and chop. Put suet thru food chopper. Seed and chop raisins. Put all ingredients in preserving kettle and cook, stirring to prevent burning for half an hour after boiling begins.

Seal in sterilized jars while boiling hot. Jelly, preserves or canned fruit may be used in mince meat. Chopped nuts and candied lemon and orange peel are sometimes added. A mince pie should always have an upper and a lower crust. The crust should be well baked but as the filling has been cooked the oven should be hot enough to bake the pie quickly.

INDIAN PUDDING
Four cups milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 eggs, 2-3 cup corn meal, 1 cup seeded raisins, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 scant teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Scald milk and stir in meal. Let cool to lukewarm temperature. Add butter, eggs well beaten, raisins, sugar, salt and spices. Mix thoroughly and pour into a buttered pudding dish. Bake in a slow oven for an hour and a half. Serve with hard sauce.

HARD SAUCE
One cup butter, 2 cups powdered sugar, 1 egg (white), 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, nutmeg.

Beat butter to a cream, slowly beat in sugar. The sugar should be rubbed thru a sieve. Beat in vanilla. Beat the egg white till stiff and add and beat the first mixture. Mix carefully and pile in dish to serve. Sprinkle with a few gratings of nutmeg. Hard sauce is not a task to make if the butter is creamed before any sugar is added.

STEAMED FRUIT PUDDING
Two-thirds cup finely chopped suet, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup milk, 3 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoons salt, 1 orange, 1 cup stoned and chopped dates, 1 cup stoned and chopped prunes, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon ginger.

Work suet with the hands or a silver fork until creamy. The warmth of the hands will aid in the creaming. Stir in molasses and milk. Add soda, salt, and spices to the flour and sift into the first mixture. Add juice and grated rind of the orange. Sift a little flour over the dates and raisins. Mix well and stir into the pudding mixture. Mix thoroughly and turn into a buttered mold. Steam three hours and serve with whipped cream.

The Eternal Fitness of Things

There is nothing that so determines the man or woman of good taste and breeding as a correct display of jewelry.

Such things as appropriate gems for certain types. What is the elite in necklaces, chains and rings, etc., can only come through a vast knowledge gained in the study of precious stones and their place in modern society. This knowledge is a part of our stock in trade.

mighty quick about it—you and Delmar.

She looked at him with a kind of horror. "You dare say that!" she whispered, tensely.

"Dare? Didn't I see you two together? Don't I know what sort of a man he is?" demanded Barry hoarsely. "And I thought the world of you, too. I trusted you. Trusted you! Did I say I was no fool?" He burst into a laugh that was horrible to hear. "I am the biggest fool born!"

With a fierce movement she gathered up the papers. "I believe you are right," she said, and ran from the laboratory. The door crashed after her. The sun had gone out of Ewart Barry's world. He felt that it would be good to die. But before that—revenge!

That evening Barry received a letter from William Delmar to the effect that a very renowned scientist would arrive at the Mill next day to examine the two processes, that the attendance of Ewart Barry was desired, and that the Board would be glad of any explanation of the extreme similarity of the two processes.

Ewart Barry tore up the missive and flung it from him. The directors might make whatever investigations they liked. He would make his own.

For hours he walked the streets of Bradley, his thoughts a welter of confusion. Someone tapped him on the arm and addressed him.

"Meester Barree."

He looked around. The man was Oscar Kohn, the newcomer to Bradley, the firebrand of the new Party.

"Hullo!"

"Meester Barree. I haf heard of vat as 'appened. It ess disgraceful. Ve vill help you."

"Oh, go to the devil!"

"But I tell you, ve vill 'elp you. Big things are 'appening. Ve vill 'elp you, and you vill 'elp us."

"Do you hear me? Clear off."

"You mean 'arf? I've other things to think about than you and your follies."

"Well, well. I vill not forget zat."

Barry walked on until he suddenly realized that he was hungry to faintness. He went into a bar and ordered sandwiches. A group of youths whom he recognized as workers in the Delmar mills came into the bar. They were noisy and excited and Barry gathered that a demonstration of some sort or another was to be made against the mill that night.

Barry's first thought was of his laboratory. There were the vials and test tubes containing the proof of his experiment. At all costs he must save the result of his experiments from the hands of a rowdy mob.

Hurriedly he left the bar and went to carry his bottles and tubes to the safety of his own lodgings.

Near the mill a crowd of rowdy youths had gathered, but he paid no attention and hurried on.

There was a side door to the laboratory and to this Ewart Barry key. He opened the door and pressed down the electric light switch, but no light responded. Under his hand a fierce fire was burning. In the darkness, flitting lit by the crackling fire he groped for a pair of sand and flung the sand on the fire. Then he hurried into the corridor and shouted for help. But the night watchman who ought to have been in the mill was outside with the crowd. The flames burst out in other directions. Barry beat at them wildly with his coat. The long, snake-like blue flames leaped higher. Barry shouted frantically; then an explosion sent him to the ground. When he gathered himself up and staggered from the furnace of flames it was a fireman who took him in his arms.

What followed was a nightmare of queer happenings. Barry found himself in a chair in Delmar's rooms. Firemen, many of them, appeared before him and disappeared. Constables also. Then William Delmar and Richard Delmar and Felton. Then Margaret Kelso. He had no knowledge of the progress of time. His head hurt abominably. And Inspector of Police came near him, and he strove to frame a question.

What's the matter with me? What's happened?"

"Best not say anything," replied the Inspector.

But—

He stopped. He saw Margaret Kelso and she was looking at him with eyes eloquent of horror and fear. He could not understand—

Other voices spoke. He heard that of Richard Delmar. "The whole mill might have been burned to the ground—I tell you he did it. You heard, Miss Kelso. Didn't he threaten to burn the place down?"

Barry almost laughed. The suggestion was grotesque, absurd. "Didn't he? Didn't he?"

Barry saw the girl bow her head. She whispered, "Yes."

He leapt to his feet. "You!" he gasped.

She covered her face with her hands. The inspector of the police took his arm, kindly enough. "Come along," he said.

"What do you mean?"

"I arrest you, Mr. Barry, for causing this fire. Was the reply 'Best say nothing'?"

They led him away. Then, with a low cry, Margaret Kelso sank to the floor.

"What the devil did you bring that girl here for?" William Delmar growled at his son. "We all heard what Barry said. Get a cab and send her home." Richard Delmar followed Margaret into the cab.

"I'll drop you at your rooms and the cab can take me on home," he said. He leaned back close to Margaret. "I say, Miss Kelso, I wish you were my secretary instead of the old man's. I believe I could work the change."

"I am quite satisfied as I am," she said acidly.

"But the old man is such a bigger-driver," he urged. "There's no sense in a pretty girl hammering at a typewriter all day long. And you are an awfully pretty girl, Miss Kelso."

She turned from him. He put his hand on her shoulder, pawing her offensively. "You are adorable when you are angry," he whispered. His arms went about her and she was seized in a violent embrace. He forced her face upwards and kissed her savagely on the lips. She wrenched her arms free and Richard Delmar sank back with his hand to the cheek which had received a stinging blow. There was blood where a ring had torn the flesh.

"You damned wild cat—I!" he burst out, savagely, but Margaret had flung open the door of the cab and sprung into the street.

The next morning Margaret was flicking the accumulation of dust from her desk when the telephone rang.

"Miss Kelso speaking?" Mr. Felton wished to speak to you," said a voice. Mr. Felton was seated at his desk. He glanced sourly at Margaret. "Morning," he said. "Look here, Miss Kelso, what have you been doing with our correspondence with the New Dye Company?"

"The correspondence has been filed as usual, sir," she said.

"Filed?" It ought to have been put in the safe. Those were your instructions."

"No, sir. I got no instructions to put that correspondence in the safe."

"Don't contradict me, Mr. Richard gave you those instructions. He is quite clear on that point. And somebody has got at that correspondence. Either Ewart Barry himself, or somebody acting for him."

Mr. Felton's gaze was upon her. "Or somebody acting for him? You have been grossly careless and, in view of the situation that has arisen, a week's salary in lieu of notice."

He rang his bell. A clerk appeared and he turned his back on Margaret. "We must ask you to look elsewhere for work. The cashier will pay you and tell to dictating letters. Without a word she went slowly out of the room."

Mert Sealls' three man team remains in second place position in the Rotarian League standing by winning two out of three games over Captain Starrett's crew, which was no fault of the captain, as his scores indicate.

Johnson must have been resting up for his tournament games and as a consequence dropped two out of three games to the Grindles, who have started a climb from the cellar position towards a higher perch in the team standings.

The Merchants' league schedule furnished more teams than could be accommodated and caused the postponement of two matches. In the other two matches Dan Diamond put his clothes against the Crawford team, which resulted in the leathermen taking two out of three games.

The Garford Motor Plant settled some arguments when the Exporters were set down by the Testers in two out of three starts, and the Foreman team showed they were still boss by making a clean sweep of their series with the Production department.

The scores:

MERCHANTS BEATEN BY RAILROADERS; SOLAR '5' WINS

L. E. & W., 10; Merchants, 9
Solars, 28; Lima Storage Battery Co., 14

Four of Lima's Industrial League basketball teams made their debut for the 1921-1922 season at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night, inaugurating the opening of the gymnasium tilts for the winter months.

Two games were played, in which the L. E. & W. railroaders triumphed over the Merchant quintet, by a single point—10 to 9, while the Solar oil men walloped the Storage Battery tossers 28 to 14.

The third game scheduled to be played between the Lima Locomotive five and the Garford truck makers, was postponed by an agreement, due to injuries of players on both teams.

It was in the last few minutes of play that Roader, right forward for the railroaders, slipped a field goal that the basket from the middle of the floor. This play enabled his team to win.

Beyond all doubt the game between the railroaders and the merchants provided the best exhibition of basketball of the two games played. At the end of the first half, the score stood 7 to 7, with both aggregations striving hard to break the tie.

It was in the last few minutes of play that Roader, right forward for the railroaders, slipped a field goal that the basket from the middle of the floor. This play enabled his team to win.

The secret of the solar battery company's football team in winning the Storage Battery outfit, lies in the fact that the team is an all-around unit and its ability in being able to play a superior brand of basketball is a known fact to every eye that in Lima. Last season he played with several different teams and appeared in games before local crowds frequently.

Thursday night he caged four field goals.

Beef Still Counts At Holabird

ALTIMORE — Camp Holabird, near Baltimore, has a famous football team. Besides hanging up a fine record for games won, the team also is famous for its beef. The soldiers' line weighs a total of 1,514 pounds, and to end, an average per man of 216 2-7 pounds.

The line isn't slow freight, either. It has succeeded in outmarching its opponents' ragat along.

The captain and coach of this big team is Captain Charles J. Mabbitt, a lad weighing 290 pounds, and a former star of the University of Idaho. He plays center.

The smallest man in the line is Tom Tuttle, 137' end. He weighs 187. But Tom more than makes up for his lighthness by his brand of play. He, besides being a football star, is a heavyweight fighter with a mean kick. He wins his fights by knockouts.

Another scrapper, Eddie Burnbrook, middleweight champion of the Third Corps Area, plays half back.
